

THE WELLINGTON ENTERPRISE.

THIRTY-THIRD YEAR.

WELLINGTON, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1899.

NO. 45

REPUBLICAN PLURALITY OF FORTY THOUSAND.

Everything Indicates That Nash's Vote Will Equal or Exceed That Figure.

A GOOD REPUBLICAN GAIN WAS MADE IN WELLINGTON

Jones got Quite a Large Vote Here, but he Took it From the Democrats—The County Goes Republican as Usual—Vote in Detail.

Nearly complete returns from all over the state indicated that the Republican candidate for governor has been elected by a plurality of 40,000 or more votes. The total vote for Jones will be close to the 100,000 mark. He carried Cuyahoga county by about 10,000 plurality, but only got third place in Lucas, his own county. He was weak in the country districts especially. Outside of Hamilton county, McLean ran behind the vote for Chapman in 1897, while Nash's plurality is probably larger than Bushnell's. There seems to be no doubt that the next legislature will be safely Republican. In Wellington, yesterday's vote was the largest ever cast at a state election. In spite of the comparatively large Jones vote here, the Republicans made substantial gains over the votes of 1897 and '98.

Republicans Gained Here.
The most surprising feature of the election in Wellington was the fact that in spite of the strong vote polled here, the republicans actually made a net gain of 33 votes over last year. The most sanguine republican expected that the opposite thing would be true. Most of Jones support came from the democrats and third party men, the democrats losing 18 votes over a year ago. In the township, the non-partisan candidate was almost a minus quantity, and only nine votes were cast for him.

The Chrysanthemum or flower and music social at the M. E. church, last evening, had a large patronage. There five piano duets by Mrs. Haskell and daughter, Miss May Haskell, and by Mrs. Harry Daugherty and Bessie Edt, and the Adelpian club of twelve male voices, led by W. H. Townsend, gave several numbers in excellent harmony. Refreshments were served in the south parlor. Plants and cut flowers were sold.

Relatives to attend the Clifford-Warren wedding tonight arrived yesterday and today.

were the familiar ones of social and political reformers. What he said was received with interest, if not with unanimous approval. Several of his remarks were greeted with applause. A delegation from the foundry occupied seats on the front row.

The Oberlin Business College Still Booming.

Nine students entered the shorthand department and seven the business department, Nov. 1st.

Miss Mary Hall, 315 Duane street; Miss Bertha E. Johnson, 328 Allen avenue, both of Lorain, and Guy Phipps, 12 Chestnut street, Elyria, are members of the new shorthand class.

The college has recently added three more new typewriters to the equipment of the shorthand department. This places the department in a position to do better work than ever before.

Mr. R. O. Young of Cleveland, whose position as manager of the Smith Premier Typewriting Agency, brings him into touch with the stenographers of the city, was in Oberlin recently. He is well acquainted with the work of the O.B.C. graduates in Cleveland, and has only words of high commendation for the college.

The demand upon the college for teachers of the commercial branches has been greater this fall than the supply. There are many high schools introducing commercial departments, and this makes a demand for well educated young men and women who can do the line of teaching.

ALL WELLINGTON WILL WELCOME METCALF.

Plans Have Been Made to Properly Receive the Returning Philippine Soldier.

THE GENERAL WILL ARRIVE SOME TIME NEXT WEEK.

He Expects to be Here by Next Wednesday, and Will be Met at the Train by a Large Reception Committee—Other Reception Arrangements.

All the arrangements have been made for the reception to General Wilder S. Metcalf upon his arrival in Wellington, and the day promises to be a memorable one, indeed. Not only is the reception to be a public one, but every pains is being taken to make it as hearty and general as the people of Wellington know how. Business will be suspended temporarily; business places will be decorated in the national colors, and the hospitality of the city extended to her honored guest and former citizen. In response to an inquiry, Gen. Metcalf wired yesterday that it was impossible to tell exactly when he will reach Wellington, but that he desires to be here by next Wednesday. In that case the reception exercises will probably be held in the Opera house Wednesday night.

RECEPTION ARRANGEMENTS.

At a meeting Monday night of Company G, of which Gen. Metcalf was lieutenant, it was thought best to hold the exercises at the Opera house on the evening of the general's arrival. It is now believed that he will reach here next Wednesday afternoon on the 1:08 train, or possibly a day earlier or later. However that may be, it was decided that the 17 remaining members of his old company and a reception committee of citizens will meet him at the train. It is expected that the band also will be at the depot on his arrival.

His arrival in Wellington will be announced by a salute of thirteen guns, the ringing of bells and the blowing of factory whistles. The reception committee will be composed of the following citizens:

The democratic candidate for decennial assessor ran ahead of his ticket in both the first and second precincts, but his republican opponent was elected nevertheless by a majority of 93 votes.

Summary.

Total vote—Nash 433, McLean 101, Jones 95. Nash's plurality over McLean 332.

Lorain County's Vote.

Elyria, Nov. 8—Returns from nearly all the voting precincts in the county indicated that the Republican plurality will be in the neighborhood of 3,500. The Jones vote was unexpectedly heavy in Lorain, where out of five precincts he secured a vote of 600, against 558 for Nash and 158 for McLean.

Brighton.

Nash 90, McLean 15, Jones 9, Ellis 3, Hammell 2.

Penfield.

Penfield reports a net Republican gain of 11 votes over last year.

Huntington and Pittsfield.

Jones didn't get a vote in Huntington, and received only one in Pittsfield. In both places the vote was unexpectedly light.

The marriage of Robert Clifford to Miss Ella Warren will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

has been working there for a short time, and of whom no news has been received for an unusually long period. It is feared that he has met with misfortune.

Mrs. Hayden of Oberlin is visiting with Mrs. William Bennett.

Now Comes Rest.

Miss Mary Ann Mullen died at her home in this city Sunday morning at eight o'clock of tuberculosis, after an illness that dates back a number of years. Simple funeral services were held in St. Patrick's Catholic church at seven o'clock Tuesday morning, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Plummans. The remains, accompanied by a number of her friends and relatives, were taken to New London for burial. Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were Dan Nairy of St. Clairsville, O., and Tom and John Branehy. The deceased had been an inmate of the Toledo State hospital for about three years, and was brought back to her old home here last week. It was erroneously stated that it was her sister, Adelia, who returned.

The Jones Meeting.

A somewhat unexpected meeting in behalf of the candidacy of S. M. Jones was held in the Opera house Saturday night, the tweets of the non-partisan movement being discussed by Rev. W. H. Wise of Chicago. It was not decided until Saturday morning that the meeting would be held and for that reason it was not advertised very widely, and the crowd that greeted the speaker was not large, many of the persons in the audience being women. The speaker of the evening is a young man of polished manners and good education. Many of his arguments supper the visitors played games of all kinds, and whiled away the evening into the "wee sma'" hours. Mr. and Mrs. Green and son, Henry, are to be congratulated for the manner in which they made the evening one to be long remembered. The class desires to thank them for the most enjoyable time in which all participated in, and will look back to it as one of the best school parties of their school life. We wish the Sophomore class to remember the Golden Rule.

COUNTY TRUSTEES

Discussed Stone Roads at Their Meeting Last Saturday.

The trustees of Lorain county met at Elyria, Saturday, Nov. 4. The meeting was called to order by the president, F. D. Warren of Wellington.

The first topic discussed was "How to Keep our Road Sides Clean." A motion was made and carried to appoint a committee of three to draw up a petition, which is to be sent to every township in the county for the farmers to sign. The petition is then to be sent to the county's state representative.

The committee appointed is: Mr. Langdon of Elyria, H. C. Wanzersine of Oberlin, and F. A. Douglass of Wellington.

The committee will meet at Hon. A. G. Comings' office in Oberlin, Saturday, Nov. 11.

The stone road question was discussed, but no formal action was taken.

There are now about $27,000 on hand, raised from the tax assessment last June, for the building of stone roads, and it is probable that the county commissioners will take the matter up at a special meeting in the near future.

THE EVENING PROGRAM.

The most interesting part of the reception has been reserved for the evening. At that time Gen. Metcalf will be escorted to the Opera house, probably by the Wellington band, and the hospitality and welcome of the citizens of Wellington and vicinity will be extended to him. The exercises will begin at 7:30, and will include a number of short addresses that promise to be very interesting. The following program, subject to amendment, has been arranged for the evening:

Song by the School Children, "America."
Address of Welcome and Response.
Song by the Adelpian Quartette.
A Number of Short Speeches by Citizens.
Song by the Adelpian Quartette.
Song by the School Children, "Star Spangled Banner."
It seems likely that the reception to Gen. Metcalf will be a larger affair than was at first intended, and if the weather is favorable, it is believed that many persons will be here from neighboring towns. Besides the Wellington band, the Huntington band has signified its willingness to attend the evening reception, and invitations will be extended to the Spencer and La Grange cornet bands and the Brighton march band to be here at the same time.
